

ST. LOUIS GIRL IS LEADER OF A MOB

Assumes Role of Joan of Arc Until Posse Capture Her.

CITY A MILITARY CAMP

Enrollment of Citizens Continues—Cars Will Be Run at All Hazards.

NO SETTLEMENT IS IN SIGHT

St. Louis, June 7.—[Special Telegram]—The street car strike is approaching a crisis. Five hundred men from Philadelphia and Baltimore are on their way here to take the strikers' places. They are expected to arrive tomorrow morning. The special train with the men is reported at Pittsburg this morning.

An armed posse will meet them and it is expected a clash will occur. Chief of Police Campbell announced this afternoon that the company would run cars after dark today on Finney avenue line.

The sheriff will have a thousand men with riot shot guns along this line and the police will have two men on each car. No cars have been run on this line for four weeks.

A dispatch from Jefferson City says the governor has received a letter signed "Evermore," saying that he would be shot unless he sends the militia to St. Louis and takes charge of the street car strike.

St. Louis, Mo., June 7.—A Joan of Arc came to the 4,000 street car strikers of this city last night in the person of Miss Maud Thomas, the 17-year-old daughter of a union mactorman living at 2317 South Twelfth street. For half an hour she harangued a mob at Allen avenue and Tenth street, urging the excited laborers to the extreme of violence for the sake of crushing the Transit company.

Then placing herself at the head of 5,000 strikers Miss Thomas led them through the streets of South St. Louis, singing a refrain which she had composed, after the air of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching." The words are:

Strike, strike, for home and children;
We are fighting for our bread,
And by darkness or by day,
We are guided on our way,
By our God, whose wrath all earthly tyrants dread.

Mob Follows the Girl Leader

Rank after rank of the workers' army caught up the spirit of the lines till the chorus resounded through the streets. A boy supplied Miss Thomas with a pony. The men brandished stones and clubs in response to the girl's commands. Women and children joined the mob by the scores, and the march for the Curran-delet power-house began. Red flags bearing strike legends mingled with the Stars and Stripes in the ranks, and a red transparency proclaimed in white letters:

"Lincoln freed the slaves forty years ago. Who will free us?"

Posse Spoils Demonstration

Two blocks from the power-house four detachments of the posse comitatus, commanded by Captains C. S. Clarkson and W. F. McIntyre, blocked the way and threatened to fire on the strikers. Miss Thomas was captured, unhurt, and taken home by an orderly. Leaderless and cowed by the posse, the mob broke up and five of the apparent instigators of the plot were arrested.

The girl told the deputies that she would lead her army in the heart of St. Louis today and attempt to excite sympathy with her "chorus of liberty."

All efforts to settle the strike are at a standstill, but negotiations will be resumed, when ex-Governor Stone, attorney for the strikers, returns from Kansas City.

The seventh death resulting from the strike disturbances was numbered last night when Richard Mitchell, a barber, died of the gunshot wounds he received at Broadway and Miller streets last Friday night. His alleged assailants have been arrested.

City a Military Camp

Except for the color of uniforms the city has assumed every appearance of military occupation. About the doors of the court house the pyramid of shells besides the six municipal riot cannon. The various posse barracks and the streets are alive with the marching of squads of armed men.

A few cars were running during the day, but traffic was interrupted every few minutes by the cutting of trolley wires, to which form of violence the strikers restricted themselves during the day. All over the city the police and posse were pursuing the wire cutters and last night the capacity of the jails was overtaxed by the arrests.

More Companies Added to Posse.

Seven additional companies of citizens numbering 200 men, were incorporated in the posse comitatus by Colonel J. H. Cavender.

All men who refuse to fire on union employees or to ride on cars have been dismissed by Sheriff Pohlman.

It is intended to call for 1,000 more men for the posse and use the entire force as a guard along the tracks. Cars will then be run between a double row of armed men standing fifty feet apart.

Government Forces Defeated

Carcas, June 7.—[Special Telegram]—The government forces have been defeated in three battles. General Pennsylvane and five hundred men were taken prisoners near Rionegro. No mention of the killed and wounded. It is a movement of the liberals to overthrow the administration, which is accused of the misappropriation of public funds.

ADMIRAL DEWEY STILL A CANDIDATE

If the People Want Him He Says, He is Ready to Run for President.

Columbus, O. June 7.—Admiral Dewey and party arrived in Columbus yesterday afternoon and while they did not bring the admiral's presidential boom with them, as the admiral is making the visit purely as a war hero, statement was made that the boom is still in existence and that the latching is still on the outside.

The Kansas City convention, the admiral hints, may have him if it wants him, and he isn't particular as to platform. Any declaration of principles will do, for, as the admiral said today, "platforms are made for presidents; presidents do not make platforms."

Concerning his candidacy Admiral Dewey said:

"My position as to the presidential nomination is just the same as it was three months ago. If the people want me, and say so, I am ready to accept. If they do not want me—well, I have a pretty good job."

"It is not at all likely that I shall be nominated by the Kansas City convention, but I cannot see that it is a disgrace for a man to aspire to the presidency of the United States, or for a man to accept the offer from the people of that position if the offer should be made."

MARCH IS AT CANDON

Soldiers Return Exhausted From Their Long and Vigorous Pursuit of Aguinaldo.

Manila, June 7.—A dispatch from Candon, dated June 4, says Major P. C. March's men of the Thirty third Regiment returned to Candon that day by steamer from Aparri. A majority of the men are ready for the hospital. They are thin and weak, having traveled 250 miles in the mountains, during which they suffered greatly with hunger. Of the fifty horses which started with the battalion thirteen survived. The remainder died on the march or fell into canons.

The battalion practically collapsed at Pinal, thirty miles from Tuguegarao, as the result of fever and exhaustion. Eighty seven of the men were conveyed from Pinal to Miguegarao in bull carts, and those falling on the way were carried in litters by the Igorottis with the column.

Paris, June 7.—The Americans are greatly elated over the success of their exhibit in the art department, where the jury has awarded them prize which place them second only to France.

A distinct honor to American womanhood is the election of Miss Jane Addams or Chicago, as president of the jury of social economy.

The jury of painting of the exposition has conferred medals of honor upon James McNeil Whistler and John Singer Sargent, the two famous American painters.

Elkhart, Ind., June 7.—Editor B. G. Whitehead of the Daily Truth drove from his office at the point of a revolver five members of Buckskin Bill's Wild West show, who had gone to the office to demand satisfaction for an article which declared that the show permitted all sorts of crooked games.

SOUTHERN WOMEN TALK SECESSION

COLOR QUESTION MAY DISRUPT THE FEDERATION.

Mrs. Ruffin Attends the Biennial Session at Milwaukee Today—Sectarianism in Clubs—Mrs. Lowe Can Get Presidency—Wisconsin Will Get a Nomination.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 7.—While the Mason and Dixon line was being retraced by members of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs today Mrs. Josephine St. Pierre Ruffin, the colored representative of the New Era club of Massachusetts, came quietly into the convention hall and took a seat with the Massachusetts delegation.

The few that knew she was there whispered to one another: "Wait until the board acts." The southern states, with the exception of Tennessee, claim that the passing of the Georgia resolution is all that stands between them and secession. The northern states, some of them, cry "Let the South secede if it will."

Digging Up the Hatchet
The board must deal with these factions, both of which have presented protests for and against the admittance of colored women into the federation. And so these women are digging up the hatchet of discord buried by their husbands and fathers.

"Southern women will leave the federation at once if the delegates admit the colored women," said Mrs. Kate Cobell Currie of Dallas, Texas, president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Currie was a warm friend of Miss Winnie Davis and wears an exquisite miniature of Miss Davis at her throat. She speaks of "We women of the South."

The cry of "no north, no south, no east, no west," does not ring out as it did at former biennials. The cry has changed to "You of the north, we of the south."

Sectarianism in Clubs

One of the questions to come up today relates to sectarianism in clubs. "Will it affect the National Council of Jewish Women or the Catholic Woman's league?" was asked. "It is a question of race in our organization, and our membership is founded on that," said Miss Sadie American of the Jewish council, Chicago. "A belief in catholicity as a universal brotherhood is what we require," said Mrs. J. C. Robinson of the Catholic Woman's league.

The applause in the reorganization discussion showed that the clubs prefer to go on with their present form of representation, that is, through individual clubs and state federations instead of by state federations exclusively.

Mrs. Lowe to Get Nomination.

The excitement over the election contest has died out considerably, for the club women have very generally accepted the belief that if Mrs. Lowe wants the nomination she will get it and if she gets it there is scarcely a shadow of doubt but that she will be elected, color line or not. Even those who have been her most bitter opponents say that she will get the office unless something as startling as an open breach on the race question occurs, an event that the club leaders are warding off in every possible way.

Wisconsin to Get Something

That Wisconsin will get a plum is generally admitted, but just what sort of a plum it will be depends a great deal on the turn of affairs when the nominating committee gets to work tonight. Mrs. Morris is the only woman spoken of for the presidency, but Mrs. George H. Noyes of Milwaukee, the chairman of the credentials committee, is being urged for either the vice presidency or one of the secretaryships.

FOR NATIONAL NEGRO PARTY

Meeting Held in Philadelphia—Propose to Name Candidates.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 7.—The first steps looking to the organization of a national negro party have been taken in this city. Prominent negroes—bishops, editors and lawyers—at a meeting decided to place a presidential ticket in the field, with negro candidates. The plan is to organize the party in every state of the union and nominate candidates for state and congressional offices. Bishop Levi J. Chapin, the newly elected head of the African Methodist Episcopal church in this district, presided at the meeting.

BADGER BUSINESS IN 56TH CONGRESS

LITTLE LEGISLATION FOR INTERESTS OF WISCONSIN.

Delegations From This State Were Very Much Interested in the Passage of the Grout Bill—Members Will Soon Be Home—Swamp Land Bill Went Over.

Washington, D. C., June 7.—The session of congress just closed has been a short one for a regular business session, and apart from passing the regular appropriation bills comparatively little has been done aside from the passing of the financial bill. The time of the session has been so much taken up with the budget bills, discussion of the insular questions and campaign speech making that there has been little time for the consideration of private bills and measures of special interest to individual states.

Interests of Badger State

So far as the interests of Wisconsin are concerned there was little demand for legislation directly affecting them. The passage of the Emergency River and Harbor bill provided for the harbor of Milwaukee in a substantial way. During the session more private pension bills were passed than in any recent session.

The customs port of Green Bay was made a port of entry and delivery of imported goods by special legislation, and a term of the district court was established at Superior. The Wisconsin swamp land bill went over on account of the development of bitter opposition to it in the state and the recognized impossibility of getting the measure up in the house while such opposition existed.

The Wisconsin members generally have been deeply interested in the passage of the Grout Oleomargarine bill. Mr. Davidson of the Oshkosh district having been the original promoter of a bill along these lines introduced at the last session.

Wisconsin Delegation.

With the closing of the session most of the members of the Wisconsin delegation will return to their homes soon. Senators Spooner and Charles will leave in a day or day. Representatives Jenkins, Babcock and Otjen will not go immediately, the first named being still confined to his home by illness although he is improving and will probably be able to leave next week.

Mr. Babcock will remain here till the middle of the month, when arrangements will be perfected for transferring the headquarters of the republican congressional campaign committee to Chicago, and he will leave for that city paying a visit to the state before settling down to the work of the committee. Mr. Otjen will probably leave for home Sunday. Messrs. Stewart and Dable go home in the morning, and Messrs. Davidson and Barney on Friday. Messrs. Minor, Cooper and Each will go in a few days.

Bill Will Pass Next Session.

The representatives from the agricultural states who have put up a tremendous fight for the Grout bill increasing the tax on colored oleomargarine are satisfied with the results that have been achieved at this session of congress. The agreement to consider the bill the first week of the next session is believed by them to amount to a certainty that the bill will be then passed by the house.

The total appropriations of the Fifty-Sixth congress were $799,729,476.

The senate reconvened at 12:40 o'clock and the conference report on the naval appropriation bill was laid before it. Hale reported a disagreement and that the senate insist on its amendments. The motion prevailed. A recess was taken till two o'clock when a number of unobjectionable pension bills were passed and the senate went into executive session.

BARTLETT TRIPP IS IN THE FIELD

He Wants the Republican Nomination for Vice President—Eight States Behind Him.

Chicago, June 7.—Bartlett Tripp, of Yankton, S. D., is a candidate for the republican nomination for vice president. Word was received at the republican state headquarters yesterday that the republicans of the state of Washington have taken up Mr. Tripp as their candidate for the vice presidential nomination and are trying to form in his favor a combination among the Pacific and Northwestern states.

According to the story that came to Chicago the promoters of the Tripp boom have been working quietly. They desired to make all their arrangements for his candidacy before bringing him out openly as a candidate. It is claimed that Mr. Tripp's friends in Washington have promised of support for him in the republican national convention of the delegates from Washington, Oregon, California, Utah, Wyoming, Montana and the two Dakotas.

An effort was made to get a similar pledge from the Minnesota republicans, but the best that could be done in the state was to secure a promise that after the Minnesota delegation has given a complimentary vote to Senator Washburn the state would go to Tripp.

JAPAN CHECKS RUSSIAN PLAN

Mikado Will Not Allow Czar to Send Army to China.

London, June 7, 8 a. m.—The outrages by the Boxers in China are rapidly being lost sight of by the sudden development of a serious political phase in the far Eastern crisis.

There is no longer any doubt that Russia is trying to induce China to formally request Russian assistance in quelling the disturbances.

It is certain that Japan is regarding Russia's offer as distinctly hostile. From Shanghai comes the statements that if Russia persists in sending a large armed force into China a collision will inevitably result. The information is accompanied by rumors of the hurried mobilization of the Japanese fleet.

Advices received late last night from Japan announce the resignation of the Yamagato ministry and that the Marquis Ito is now endeavoring to form a ministry. Yamagato is essentially a soldier. He was the Field Marshal in command of the Japanese army in the recent war, and his resignation of civil employment will enable him to devote his entire time to military matters.

CHINA DECLINES AID FROM RUSSIA

Celestials Think They Can Quell Boxers Uprising Without Outside Aid

MORE TROOPS LANDED

Catholics Defeat Boxers, Kill Three of Them and Take Nine Cannon.

Imperial Edict Is Issued

Tien Tsia, June 8.—[Special Cablegram]—It is rumored that a battle has occurred at Tangu between the Boxers and the Catholics.

The latter, it is said, captured nine cannon and killed three Boxers.

The train which left here today was compelled to return. The villages of the plate-layers in the cabins along the lines are in flames, and the telegraph lines have been cut. The Chinese troops on the train fired at a small party of natives, but the commander refused to disembark.

Last night one hundred and thirty British, thirty-five Russian, thirty one German, fifty French and forty five Italian marines arrived here from Taku.

The Chinese foreign office told the Japanese minister that the Russian offer to assist China in quelling the rebellion had been declined.

An imperial edict has been issued censuring the imperial troops for cowardice and ordering the suppression of the Boxers immediately. It is believed that this is for foreign consumption.

Empress Can Quell Boxers

London, June 7.—[Special Cablegram]—The Chinese embassy in an authorized statement says it is their opinion that the dowager empress is capable of quelling the Boxer rebellion if she desires, but that nobody else is able to predict what she will do. If MacArthur can spare troops from the Philippines, the Chinese officials state it would undoubtedly have a great influence with the empress.

Situation Growing Worse

Peking, June 7.—The situation is growing steadily worse. Events move with such rapidity and affairs, owing to the excitement of the natives, are so critical that the foreign ministers held frequent meetings. They feel the need of a free hand for energetic action, without a perpetual reference to the home governments.

Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister, is writing for seventy-five more marines.

Native employees who have returned from Feng Tai say that they left the Boxers openly drilling in the adjacent village.

Russia Back of the Boxers.

Washington, June 7.—Russian intrigue is at the bottom of the present anti-foreign insurrection in China. It was through Russian machination that the queen dowager was led to encourage the "Boxers" to make a demonstration of force. Empress T'ai An is a she devil. The gravest anxiety as to the future of the complication in China is felt at the European embassies and legations here.

Germany, Great Britain and Japan have a thorough understanding concerning the Russian plot. They will stand together in resistance to the expected encroachment of the great European power. If Russia seizes Peking they will protect and demand evacuation. If necessary they will meet force with force. Germany is the leader of this tacit alliance of the three nations most directly interested in China.

British Were Outwitted.

The Russian plot, as it is understood among European diplomats in Washington, was to stir up the anti-foreign element of the population, and under cover of disorder to land troops which should forever remain in the Chinese capital, permitting Russia gradually to extend her suzerainty over the empire through the connivance of the vicious queen dowager.

Tai An is of rabid pro-Russian tendencies, and she bitterly hates the Germans and the English.

British diplomacy has been completely outwitted in Chinese affairs and from this fact observant diplomats argue the early dismemberment of the empire. The present crisis may be passed without a sensational climax, but as long as the vicious old queen remains mistress of China and under the thumb of Russia serious trouble is to be apprehended.

Taylor Is in the Race

Indianapolis, June 7.—[Special Telegram]—W. S. Taylor denies the statement that he has withdrawn from the Kentucky gubernatorial race.

SECOND NIGHT OF SCHOOL EXERCISES

THREE ACT FARCE WRITTEN BY MISS WHITON.

Passed Off With a Dash That Bestowed
Much Credit on All Who Took Part —Program Longer Than Previous Evening—Diplomas Will be Given Tonight.

When the first number on the High school commencement program was called last evening standing room was at a premium. As early as six thirty o'clock a large crowd was in waiting for the doors to open. The program last evening was longer than the previous evening. The first number was a selection by the Imperial quartet. "The Power of Friendship" was the subject ably handled by Miss Anna J. Peterson which formed the first regular number on the program.

"Miss Mildred Hatfield took for her subject 'Basket Ball for Girls.' Bert L. Hogue took for his thesis 'Taxes in Janesville.' Miss Harriet E. Lee spoke entertainingly on 'What We Do Not Know.' Grace E. Rice handled in a most able manner the thesis 'Why Did I Not Graduate?'

The subject, "The Small and the Great" was delivered by Gertrude M. Smith in a manner to win high favor.

Edna M. Sawyer's subject, "The Red Cross Society," was well given. William M. McCue won high favor with the audience taking for his subject, "Dewey at Manila."

Myra G. Hoskins creditably gave "The Alamo." She told of a battle fought on the plains of Texas.

Ernest Kneip had for his thesis "The Per Cent. of Alcohol in Common Drunk."

George R. Farmer in military costume gave "Experience of a Spanish American War Soldier." Stereoscopic pictures were used.

Cora A. Brown gave a selected reading from "Christmas Carols." The evening's program closed with an original three act farce written by Anorette Whiton. The play was entitled "Diamond Cut Diamond." From start to finish the farce went with a dash that reflected much credit on the authors.

The first scene was a boy's bed room. Raymond Yates, as the clumsy lad, was good. Harry Atwood deserved much credit for the part that he assumed much against his wishes owing to the recent death of his brother. His place was one that could not have been filled at this late hour. Frank W. Kimball and George R. Farmer with the boxing gloves did well.

Others who took part in this scene were Glen C. Snyder, Walter W. King, A. Leroy Barless and Francis J. Baker. The second scene was a girl's parlor. The young ladies who took part in this scene were Misses Margaret C. Jackson, Jessie Spellman, Anorette T. Whiton, Lillian Mount and Nellie M. Casady.

The third scene was a ball room, closing with a May pole dance. The entire farce from the start was placed in the hands of Mrs. O. H. Brand and under her supervision the rehearsing was conducted.

Too much credit cannot be bestowed on Mrs. Brand for the interest that she has taken in the staging of this farce which terminated so successfully.

Tonight the graduates will receive their diplomas. The program will be interesting and will include the singing of the class song which was written by Eloise Nowlan.

Joseph Hayes acted the part of stage manager and performed his work in a way that won him praise from all sides. The perfect stage management added much to the successful carrying out of the farce.

NEW LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE LINES

INDEPENDENT BADGER LINES TO BE CONSOLIDATED.

Milwaukee Capitalists Said to Be Ready to Take Stock as Soon as City Grants Franchise—Exchange for Chicago, Too—Janesville Man is a Delegate.

Madison, Wis., June 7—The Wisconsin Independent Telephone association, which is holding a two days' meeting here, is expected by most of its members to take definite steps today toward the formation of a long distance toll line corporation which will work in harmony with all the independent telephone companies of the state and against the Bell company. This action, it is stated by prominent members of the association, will result within two years in the construction of a local independent exchange in Milwaukee. Said one of these men last night:

Strong Rival to Bell Company.

"We have had assurances from capitalists in Milwaukee that plenty of money for construction of an independent exchange there will be ready as soon as the city council passes and the mayor signs an ordinance granting the necessary privileges. We hope vigorously to prosecute the work of consolidating and extending the present independent toll lines of the state and demonstrating to the people that their welfare and safety in the use of telephones rests in the maintenance of a strong rival of the Bell company."

"The principal purpose of our present meeting is to devise some plan of combination whereby we can compete with the Bell in long distance business. When that is done we have no fear of getting plenty of patronage and finally either building or forcing other persons to build independent exchanges in Milwaukee and all the large cities of the state."

President Urges Consolidation.

President A. L. Hutchinson of La Crosse is unable to attend the present meeting on account of illness, but he sent an address which was read to the association by Secretary H. C. Winter of Madison. President Hutchinson predicts that independent exchanges will soon be built in both Milwaukee and Chicago. He cites the remarkable increase in patronage of independent exchanges during the past two years, and urges the formation of a combination or new corporation for the construction of long distance lines.

Various Papers Read

In the absence of President Hutchinson, Vice President C. P. Schweizer of La Crosse, presided. After the reading of the president's address the following papers were presented last night: "Farmer's Lines in Connection With Exchanges," W. J. Baraboo; "The Independent and Monopoly," C. P. Schweizer, La Crosse; "The Independent Telephone Movement in Wisconsin," W. C. Winter, Madison.

C. H. Schweizer was elected delegate, and R. Valentine of Janesville, alternate to the annual convention of the National Telephone association in Cleveland, June 12, 13 and 14.

At Athletic Park yesterday afternoon the Columbia Giants defeated the Nebraska Indians in a poorly played game of base ball, the score being 20 to 5. A small sized audience was on hand. The game here next Monday between the Cuban Giants and Chicago Unions should prove a most interesting contest. Both teams are composed of colored men who well know how to play all points of the game.

Barned Men 25 H. Wedding.

Carlinville, Ill., June 7.—Miss Estella Beardsley introduced a novelty at her wedding, no men being present with the exception of the bridegroom, the Rev. Lafayette Henry Shock, and the minister. The ushers were women, and so was the "best man" a young woman. Every girl did her part as attendant with all the dignity and grace that was required. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Linn Beardsley. The maid of honor was Miss Susan M. Beardsley, the bride's sister, who served as head usher and master of ceremonies, as well as assisting the bride and bridegroom.

Stenks a March on Macy, Ind.

Peru, Ind., June 7.—For thirty years or more Macy, a thriving town of 800 people, has been without a saloon. Hundreds of attempts during this time have been made to start a saloon in the village, always ending in failure, owing to the determined opposition of the people. Andrew Oliver, a citizen of Macy, played a shrewd game by advertising according to law in the Converse Journal, sixty miles away, and in the extreme eastern part of the county. The application came before the county commissioners in session here, and, no remonstrators appearing, a license was granted.

Tax Dodger Goes to Canada.

Mount Clemens, Mich., June 7.—William Cottrell has left his home here and gone to Windsor, Ont. He left behind a $10,000 mortgage. The tax commission unearthed about $400,000 worth of mortgages held by him on Michigan property which had never been placed on the assessment rolls. Rather than pay the tax Mr. Cottrell decided to leave for Canada and stay there.

BOERS ASK AN ARMISTICE.

Gen. Buller Agrees Upon a Three-Day Cessation.

London, June 7.—A special dispatch from Lorenzo Marques, dated Tuesday, June 5, says: "Gen. Buller and Christian Botha met at Laings nek, at Buller's request, when a three days' armistice was agreed upon." The dispatch adds that the British have evacuated Utrecht.

Until the situation in the neighborhood of Pretoria is enlightened the officials here, as well as others, will find difficulty in prognosticating Lord Roberts' immediate program. It appears evident that the Boer commander-in-chief, Gen. Botha, with all his guns, withdrew in good order, probably along the Delagoa Bay railroad, with the view of joining President Kruger. So the Transvaal forces remain practically intact, with Presidents Kruger and Steyn and Gen. Botha and Secretary of State Reitz all safe and in a position to continue the direction of affairs. The more optimistic see in the fact that President Kruger's wife and Gen. Botha's wife were left at Pretoria an indication that the president does not count on a long resistance. In any case it will probably take Lord Roberts at least a week to organize a campaign of pursuit. The military authorities anticipate that the next important news will come from Gen. Buller's direction. Plenty of time has elapsed to complete the turning movement at Laing's nek. A belated dispatch from Mafeking, dated May 31, announces the British occupation of Malmant, where 200 Boers surrendered.

Boers to Stand at Lydenburg.

London, June 7.—Military operations in South Africa are apparently at a standstill. For a day or two the tired troops of Lord Roberts are resting and he is filling the magazines and warehouses at his new base, Pretoria, preparatory to a long chase after the retreating Boers in the direction of Lydenburg. His cavalry is probably seeking to intercept Commandant General Botha.

CAN'T KEEP IT UP.

Can't Deceive Janesville People Very Long—They Learn Quickly.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out; and every time a man is fooled another skeptic is made. We are naturally skeptical when reading a published statement given by some stranger residing in a far-away place but the circumstances are entirely different when home endorsement is presented. The testimony of local citizens renders deceit impossible. It is so easy for you to investigate. Read this case:

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St. journeyman carpenter, says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. These secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

TERRITORIAL EXPANSION

LaCrosse Chronicle—The question of territorial expansion rests primarily upon the right and duty of civilization to grow and expand. Growth is a law of nature and its opposite is decay. Men and people must progress or they decline. The elements of progress are the elements of activity and usefulness. War is one of the elemental forces of progress. Its result is victory for the strong, the survival of the fittest. Weak men give way to their betters, higher ideals and methods vanquish lower ideals and supplant decaying civilizations. When we speak of war we mean the clash of arms that involves death and destruction as its immediate result. Yet it is often more unkind to accomplish the same ends by peaceful means. When a nation achieves, in the peaceful arts of commerce a victory over its less enterprising or less intelligent rival, that takes bread from its mouth and hope from its bosom, is the result less cruel than the swift bullet of battle? Growth and improvement always supplant a lower order of animal, vegetable or mental activity. There is no vacuum in nature. Progress does not fructify in blank space.

If the question is asked "why not stand aloof?" from the world's affairs, and keep out of the broil of the world's contending forces, the answer is, "We cannot if we would." To illustrate the point, this country, selling sixty per cent of all exports, to Great Britain and her colonies, can no more be independent of Great Britain's interests than she can of her own.

In the outset, when our forefathers made a government of territory that lay east of the Alleghenies, they were as far from conceiving of a continental empire as a possible growth of their experiment, as our grandfathers would have been of a colonial policy that reached out into the Philippines. But within twenty-seven years, Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence, purchased from Napoleon, the territory of Louisiana, for the sum of $15,000,000, an amount then two millions of dollars in excess of the entire annual revenues of the government. Without their consent, this purchase transferred to the United States, 85,000 mixed inhabitants, Spanish, French, English, etc., 40,000 negro slaves, and an indefinite number of Indians. What would be said today if the government was to expend a sum exceeding its annual income of $550,000,000 for new territory? Jefferson's purchase of Louisiana was, at that time, even a bolder and more startling proposition. He was subjected to most violent criticism.

In his second inaugural address Mr. Jefferson devotes much space to his critics. Among other things he says: "I know that the acquisition of Louisiana has been disapproved by some from a candid appreciation that the enlargement of our territory would endanger its union. But who can limit the extent to which the federative principle may operate effectively?"

He says also that he regards "the aboriginal inhabitants of these countries" "with the commiseration their history inspires."

A striking feature of this address is a long and impassioned reference to the criticisms of the press upon his administration for the purchase of Louisiana, in which he goes to the extent of intimating the advisability of censorship. He says:

"During the course of this administration, and in order to disturb it, the artillery of the press has been leveled against us, charged with whatsoever its licentiousness could devise or dare."

It is needless to quote farther to show the depths to which Mr. Jefferson's feelings had been stirred by these criticisms or to measure the magnitude of the step in territorial acquisition, the wisdom of which we have lived to see fully justified.

The next acquisition of territory was that of Florida, forced from Spain by General Jackson's arms. Next came the annexation of Texas, followed by the war with Mexico, the result of which was the addition of California and the territory now comprised in Nevada, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. In all these cases there was those to cry "hold!" because we were growing too great.

But, say the critics of today: "This was all homogeneous territory. We were not annexing tropical people."

We had taken along a large number of Spanish, Mexicans, and Indians, in these transactions. The difference of any, was of degree, not in kind.

When, however, we came to the purchase of Alaska, another cry went up in addition. It was "detached territory." Our own members of congress, the late Hon. C. C. Washburn, declared that Alaska was a barren waste of snow and ice, "a vile country" and not worth the price Secretary Seward wanted to pay for it, $7,000,000. Mr. Seward, on the other hand, had the prescience to assert that the Pacific ocean was the future commercial highway of the United States, and to insist that a purchase that involved so much coast-line, and islands that extended 2,000 miles to the westward of the Pacific coast, would be of future value beyond estimate. We can now see the wisdom of his position.

What has been, will be. The country will grow and expand with her opportunities. Call it destiny, or what you will, the better must take first place in this world, and that law is as inexorable with nations as with other natural growth. The United States in extending her progressive forces to Hawaii, to Cuba, to Porto Rico and the Philippines is merely fulfilling the duty that has been assigned her. There is to be no retracing of steps. She must bear well her part, there all the honor lies.

D., June 7.—The democratic state convention adopted a resolution recommending that the Yankton convention to nominate congressmen and a state ticket endorse the candidacy of Senator Pettigrew for re-election. Harfleur has arrived and the Terrible is expected. One hundred and thirty-one British, thirty-one German, fifty French and forty-five Italian marines have arrived here. These reinforcements render Tien-Tsin secure.

Uprising in North Borneo.

Victoria, B. C., June 7.—News was brought from the east by the steamer Empress of Japan that a serious uprising against the British has again broken out in North Borneo. Many refugees who arrived in Labuan say that the cause of the outbreak was the general dissatisfaction against the rule of the chartered company. In the fighting several British were killed and seven wounded. Twenty-five Chinese were killed and the environs of the city were totally destroyed.

TWO SAFES BLOWN OPEN BY ROBBERS

Boldest Night Robbery that Has Ever Taken Place in Janesville.

HAUL WAS NOT LARGE

J. F. Spoon & Co. and L. F. Knipp & Co. Are the Ones to Suffer Loss.

NO CLUE TO THE ROBBERS

During the early hours of the morning safe blowers got in their work in this city at the North River street establishments of J. F. Spoon & Company and Louis F. Knipp & company. In both instances the robbers blew open office safes securing money and valuable papers for their trouble.

From the safe of Knipp & Company the thieves secured thirty-one dollars in cash, a gent's gold watch valued at forty dollars, three life insurance policies, several valuable deeds, mortgages and other valuable papers.

At the office of Spoon & Company the robbers were not so well paid for their trouble for here they found but two dollars in small change. Valuable papers were in the safe but these they left undisturbed.

The police are of the opinion that the robbery is the work of a bad gang of semi professionals that have not been at the business many years.

Zerbel Makes Discovery.

At four thirty o'clock this morning John Zerbel, an employee of Knipp & Company, went to the brewery to perform his usual morning labor. After entering the brewery he had occasion to go to the office which is located in the same building. He unlocked the door and entered. Then for the first time did he realize that the safe had been robbed. The entire room presented a most confused appearance. In all portions of the room twisted iron and cement lay about.

Spoon's Safe Robbed.

Mr. Zerbel then closed the office door behind him and with all possible haste started to notify Mr. Knipp who resides but a short distance away. While crossing the yard Mr. Zerbel met Fred Heffauwer, a teamster employed by J. F. Spoon & Company, who was about to enter the barn to care for his horses. He notified Mr. Heffauwer and then both men went to the office of Spoon & Company where they found the same state of affairs. Mr. Spoon was then notified by telephone and he was soon on the scene.

Entered Through Window.

Then the discovery was made that the thieves had first entered a nearby switch house on the Northwestern road stealing the lower portion of a switchman's lantern and a heavy iron spike hammer. With hammer and lantern in hand the robbers went first to the Spoon office which faces River street. This office they entered by a rear door by the use of a jimmy. A nail held this door and with little trouble the thieves entered.

Badly Wrecked Safe.

When once inside the safe blowers tried the combination and failing in this they used their hammer in pounding off the combination lock. The lock broke, but this not admitting them to the safe's contents, the men next knocked off the handle knob. After the handle had been removed the robbers placed some powerful explosive in the small opening and with a fuse did the work.

The lock was wrenched from the door and then all the men had to do was to help themselves. The force of the explosion threw cement within the safe door and all over the floor. The windows were broken in the office, which is a one-story frame structure. About two dollars in small change was taken. Valuable papers were not disturbed.

Then closing the office door behind them the robbers went to the Knipp office, which is located about fifty yards away.

Entered Through Window.

On reaching the office of Knipp & Company the thieves entered by cutting a small hole in the window glass large enough to admit a hand. A stick held down the window but this was soon pushed to the floor. Here also the robbers entered with the lantern and the same heavy hammer. The combination lock of this safe was not disturbed. With hammer in hand the robbers pounded off the safe handle. Then they inserted their explosives and let go.

The explosion that followed badly wrecked the massive iron door. The lock was badly broken. Inside the outer door was still another door and this the thieves soon wrenched by using the hammer. Inside this second door was still another but as this door was accidentally left unlocked the thieves easily entered this strong box where they secured the booty.

The stolen papers were all in a leather pocket book and this was why they were undoubtedly taken. The force of the explosion never moved the massive safe a portion of an inch. All about the room lay large pieces of cement that are placed in all safe doors.

On the floor near the safe lay the iron hammer and the portion of the switchman's lantern thus indicating that the robbers first visited the Spoon office.

Explosion Stopped Clock.

On the top of the safe was a large eight day clock that had but recently been put in good running order. The sudden force of the explosion stopped the time piece the hands pointing to the hour of 3:20 o'clock which indicates the time the robbers got in their work. It is said that the night before this safe contained seven hundred dollars.

Neighbors Heard Noise.

Neighbors residing on River street heard the explosion and also heard the robbers when they were pounding away at the safe with the iron spike hammer. George Airis says that about 3:30 o'clock this morning he was awakened by a strange explosion. He got out of bed and looked out of the house but went back to bed as he saw nothing strange.

Mrs. Patrick Riley, another near resident, says that at about the same hour she heard an explosion that sounded to her as though a gasoline engine had exploded. Mrs. Sidmore, who resides near the Spoon office, says that she heard the robbers pounding away but thinking nothing strange of the occurrence at the time she went to sleep again.

Police Investigating.

Chief of Police Hogan this morning visited the scene of the robbery and secured what little evidence there was to obtain. The officers are of the opinion that traveling thieves did the job.

Tuesday evening at Watertown several safes were opened and the supposition is that the same gang of thieves did the job here. The officers are of the opinion that the papers that the robbers took from Knipp's safe may in time lead to their arrest.

Those who visited the scene of the explosion this morning were unable to state the kind of explosives used as there was absolutely no trace of powder, dynamite or nitro glycerine.

SIX THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

This Amount the Land Commissioners Have Awarded to G. A. Proctor for Damages Caused by Railroad.

Six thousand five hundred dollars is the sum that the legally appointed land commissioners have awarded G. A. Proctor of the town of La Prairie for damages caused to his farm by the crossing of the Janesville & Southeastern railroad tracks. The damaged farm is located about a mile from the city limits.

The farm is improved by a spacious dwelling located in the midst of a grove of fine trees that has taken years to produce. Evergreen hedges also improve the place and form a handsome drive way. By the passing of the road through this property it means that all of these trees and hedges will have to be removed. Within thirty feet of the house the track will pass.

Mr. Proctor failed to settle with the company's land commissioner and the result was that Judge Dunwiddie appointed the following commissioners: W. J. McIntyre, Janesville; W. J. Miller, Town of Rock and W. H. Gray, Town of Lima.

TRIFLED WITH OLD SAFE

Amateur Thieves Tried Their Hand at Jeffries Office.

At the Jeffries lumber yard on North River street the discovery has been made that thieves tried to effect an entrance into the office safe. No pretension is made to keep the unoccupied office locked against thieves, as nothing of value is kept in the office or the safe at any time. The guilty parties were undoubtedly home takers for after trying to hammer off the brass knob on the safe they gave up the job as a bad one. The safe is an old one and was empty at the time.

Wheat: There has been today a wonderful strong and very broad wheat market. Prices advancing 2 cents and closing about at the top. There has been but one motive which was the drought in the northwest.

There has apparently been among the professionals in the spring wheat country a change of sentiment within the past two days. It first showed itself Wednesday but has been even more apparent today. The northwest has been a buyer. Wall street has been on the same side. Patton, Cuddey and others have helped the advance along. Wheat opened at 68, sold between 68 and 70, and closed at 69 1/2 and 70. Clearances, 571,000 bu. The English visible included 1,710,000 bu. Northwest direct, were light.

Corn has been very quiet in pit all morning, and mostly neglected for wheat. Scalpers came over from wheat, when the latter advanced so sharply.

Oats quite like corn, neglected for wheat.

Provisions has been strong; pork up at one time 2 1/2 cents; lard up 10a12; ribs up 7a19. The increased outside buying was the feature. But there was bull help from Patten and Armour. Exporters reported some improvement in the demand for lard, which has been poor. There are 29,000 pigs, with 25,000 for Friday. Liverpool was 6D higher on Bacon.

BOSTWICKS BUY WILCOX PROPERTY

DRY GOODS FIRM PURCHASES WELL KNOWN CORNER.

Land Embraces the Corner of Court and Park Streets—Site Was Once Occupied by Nelson Brothers' Livery—Price Paid Was Five Thousand Six Hundred.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons, the well known local dry goods firm, have made the purchase of the Charles Wilcox estate property at the corner of Court and Park streets. The price paid was five thousand six hundred dollars.

The purchased land is well located, and for a number of years was occupied by a 2-story livery barn and a 3-story storage frame building, the property of the late Charles Wilcox. These buildings were destroyed by fire. Since the fire the land has remained vacant and at all times been an eye sore to passing pedestrians. A large portion of the debris was never removed, and the stone wall foundations remain there today.

The new purchasers will at once clean up the entire property thus making a long needed improvement. The corner comprises a frontage of 162 feet on Court street and 140 feet on Park street. On the west the property is bounded by the river.

Mr. Bostwick stated today that as yet no definite arrangements had been made as to what would be done with the corner. The citizens of Janesville can rest assured that this valuable corner will not long remain vacant when in such enterprising hands.

TOBACCO CROP IS IN NEED OF RAIN

Dry Condition of the Soil in Rock County Prevents Transplanting of the Shoots.

Edgerton, Wis., June 7.—The tobacco growers of the county now have their fields prepared for transplanting the crop, but the dry condition of the soil in many sections has delayed and prevented the planting. Rains are now badly needed to make this work general while the plants are crowding the beds and becoming too large for transplanting.

Growers concede it is almost useless to put out their fields on dry ground even where watered by the transplanted machines. The season for planting is yet early and experienced growers will delay the setting and wait for rains at least for a time yet.

The market for old leaf is rather quiet at present. The most important transaction of late was the purchase of about 1,500 cases of '98 stock by Tallard for the account of the Havana-American Co. from local packers. A little waste house handling is still being done at the packing points but the season has about closed.

Shipments out of storage is light only about 15 car loads having gone forward from this station during the week to all points. Cigar leaf to the amount of 725 cases were exported from New York during the current week.

Strictly First-Class Ready-to-Wear Suits..

Are not like cheap tailored suits to your measure, because the former will fit right. They have the right kind of linings, the edges are stayed properly and they have the style that is put into the good merchant tailoring.

The latter so-called made-to-measure Suits DON'T FIT.

They are not put together right. They have the style of the commonest kind of ready-made suits. They are POOR! VERY POOR! and you pay just as much for one of these things as you do for our good kinds.

Our $15, $18 and $20 Blue Serges

We guarantee to keep color and to keep their shape, and have the style the best merchant tailor puts into his suits. Let us show you one.

Don't forget that we press, free of charge, all garments bought of us.

For Hot Weather Wear

Our flannel stripe feather weight garments are the best. Come in coat and pants. Colors: Blue, gray, brown, at $8.00, $10.00 and $12.50 per suit.

The Paris Exposition : :

Cannot equal the Columbian Exposition held in Chicago. Neither can any Flour excel

JENNISON'S

"VERY BEST" FLOUR!

It is one of the best known and most highly praised brands in the world. It has sold upon its merits for years and has a reputation for high quality second to none. It is positively the highest patent made and is a great favorite with our customers, who insist on having Jennison's "Very Best" every time. In buying Flour you cannot afford to take chances by getting a brand unknown to you or any one else. Several batches of poor bread will discourage and disgust any housewife. It pays best to buy Jennison's "Very Best" and be sure of what you are getting. We have just made an exceptional purchase and have reduced the price to 93 cents a sack!

FOR A GOOD, BUT CHEAP FLOUR, WE OFFER :

Jennison's Tip Top at 85c a sack.

Positively the best for the money in the city. A splendid second patent, which is better than many so-called firsts. It has our full guarantee and if you don't want it, bring it back. :
